

Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church

The Diocesan Media Center has a copy of The Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church, prepared and published as a summary volume and synthesis of the Church's social teachings by the Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace. The compendium is divided into three parts, examining the foundations, contents and pastoral perspectives of Catholic social doctrine. First published in October of 2004 in Rome, this valuable resource can be ordered through the USCCB publishing office for $29.95 by calling 1-800-235-8722.

You can find The Compendium of the Social Doctrine of the Church in its entirety, as well as the text of all major CST documents, at: www.usccb.org/sdwp/vaticanencyclicals.shtml.
