

Stop Human Trafficking

Called by Catholic Social Teaching to Learn & Take Action

Catholic Charities
Diocese of Charlotte

Wed., June 25, 2025 7:00–8:30 pm

Sisters of Mercy Campus – Curtin Hall
101 Mercy Dr., Belmont, NC

(Parking lot entrance is first left from S. Main St. after passing McDonald's)

Doors open at 6:30 pm with light dinner and desserts
Event includes Q & A time and handouts of resources

R.S.V.P. by email to scaeducation@ccdoc.org by Monday, June 23. Event is free

Event Presenters

Dr. Jim Duncan

Founder & President, Project Light, Rowan County Anti-trafficking Group

Kara Griffin

Board Member, NC Coalition Against Human Trafficking; Chair, Catholic Charities Human Trafficking Awareness Committee; Member, Alliance to End Human Trafficking

Scott Salley

Collier County (Florida) Sheriff's Office (retired); Member, Catholic Charities Human Trafficking Awareness Committee

For more information on the Catholic Church's Response to Human Trafficking, go to www.ccdoc.org/humantrafficking or use the QR code:

— Parental discretion advised. Not recommended for children under 16 —