

Saturday, November 15, in Belmont, NC

Celebrating and Reflecting on Two Encyclicals on their 30th and 10th Anniversaries

This event will focus on the encyclicals Evangelium Vitae (1995) and Laudato Si' (2015), written by Pope St. John Paul II and Pope Francis respectively, which share complementary and prophetic messages promoting the protection, dignity, and thriving of human life.

Sisters of Mercy Campus – Curtin Hall
101 Mercy Dr., Belmont, NC

Doors open at 9 am. Event goes from 9:30 am – 1 pm
(Event includes lite breakfast fare, Q & A, lunch, and table discussion)

Register: <https://fs11.formsite.com/SistersofMercy/aixcsa0wih/index>
URL link above can also be copied and pasted into Google search bar.
RSVP by Wednesday, November 12.

This flyer can also be found at www.ccdoc.org/education.
Questions – please email scaeducation@ccdoc.org

Presenters:

Deacon Joshua Klickman, M.A., Deacon at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Fayetteville, NC, is the Coordinator for Human Life and Dignity for the Diocese of Raleigh, NC.

Dr. Catherine Wright, Asso. Professor of Ethics and Theology, Wingate University, is an interdisciplinary ecotheologian and Founding Director of The Collaborative for the Common Good at Wingate University (Wingate, NC).

Catholic Charities
Diocese of Charlotte

Sisters of Mercy Hermanas de la
Misericordia